Five-zero-seven, Mrs. Danelle 'Grumpy' Kraemer, end of watch, Sunday, November 30th, 2025.

You have completed your mission here. You have been a good friend to all.

We will remember your easygoing ways, your helpful and generous heart, and your friendly smile.

You have fought the good fight, and now it has finished its course. Your time to rest has come, and you have earned it. You have given your heart and soul, and everything within, to the men and women who served beside you and to the community who benefitted from the work you did.

May you rest in eternal peace knowing your strength lives on in your family and friends, and your honor lives on in all of us.

Thank you for your years of dedicated service to the community. You are now clear to remain with the Lord forever

Rest easy, five-zero-seven, we have it from here.

Lafourche Fire Dispatch clear.
